

Welcome to Wealth-Lab Developer

Dear Fidelity customer,

In light of Fidelity's recent decision to decommission Wealth-Lab Pro on 31 July 2020, we're pleased to have the opportunity to offer you a transition to Wealth-Lab Developer, where you'll be able to retain and continue to develop and employ trading strategies that you've created and backtested.

U.S. Fidelity customers can expect to receive a free license to Wealth-Lab Developer (normally a $799 value) by enrolling in an 18-month maintenance plan.

To take advantage of this offer, please fill in your name, email, and if registered, your Wealth-Lab.com username before August 31, 2020. In the next several days we will send information to the email you enter below to aid with this transition, such as:

- Download link to Wealth-Lab Developer
- How to preserve and move your strategies
- Suggestions for data providers
- Priority support options
